

Freedom Township
Synopsis Board Meeting Minutes
December 12, 2006

Supervisor Little called the regular board meeting to order at 8:00 p.m. Board members Little, Alexa, Haeussler, Horning and Weidmayer were present. November 14, 2006 regular board minutes, and treasurer's report were approved.

Planning Commission: The Washtenaw County Parks permit, the township attorney is working on the new wording regarding the fencing around the property. The extradition ordinance is with the planner to review the final draft. Barrett has until December 29th to respond to MDEQ then MDEQ has until the end of January to responded back. The clerk will provide the PC with financial facts from 2005-06 on what the PC has incurred in costs, so they can work on a budget for the 2007-08 fiscal year.

Zoning Inspector: Two zoning permits, one new address on Lima Center and a tool shed on Pleasant Lake.

Library report: Christmas in the village coloring contest is being wrapped up. Interviews are taking place for a new youth services librarian. The elevator is almost ready for use; the village is deciding what to do with the heating system and a few carpet areas. A new liaison for Clinton Public Library and the Manchester Public Library was appointed, Amy Patullo.

History report: Robert Miller gave a report on the cemetery by the Huehl farm, the cemetery does belong to the township, and Bob would like to see if cleaned up. The earliest burial at the cemetery is 1835.

Business: Appointments for the PC and the ZBA were approved. Motion to reduce the PC to five members instead of seven, carried by four ayes and one no. A statement was made by a current PC board member that she would step down to let another member take her place, because that position was eliminated. The township board will vote on this matter next month. Calendar for the next year was approved. Lisa Paul will replace Pat Mann as one of the Library Township representatives, motion passed unanimously. Warrants were approved. The meeting was adjourned at 9:03 p.m.
